

Quality Improvement Educational Event!

Topics: CAP Laboratory Accreditation and the Quality Management Plan

By the College of American Pathologists (CAP) with the Support of Centro de Diagnósticos Anátomo Patológicos Ltda (Cedap)

DATE: October 4, 2018

TIME: 2:00 to 5:00 pm (1400 to 1700 hours)

LOCATION: Alven Hotel
Rua Engenheiro Niemeyer, 215 – Centro
Joinville/SC CEP 89201-130

SPEAKER: Dr. Leonas G. Bekeris, FCAP
Member of the College of American Pathologists
Regional Inspection Commissioner, New York and Pennsylvania
CAP Deputy Regional Inspection Commissioner, Mexico and South America

REGISTER: To attend, please send email to: tlevins@cap.org

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

In this workshop, Dr. Bekeris will discuss best practices and requirements that are essential to ensuring delivery of high quality patient results. From participation, attendees will:

- | | |
|--|--|
|) Gain an understanding of the laboratory accreditation program |) Gain an understanding of the importance and purpose of an effective quality management plan |
|) Learn about program focus for continuous improvement and compliance with global best practice requirements |) Learn about key elements and how an effective quality management plan contributes to employee and patient safety |

Send questions about this event to:

Theresa Levinski

International Region Leader, Latin America

College of American Pathologists

tlevins@cap.org

We hope you can join us and appreciate your participation in this event!